PET ETIQUETTE

Our neighborhood has always been a great place to take a walk or a run. Our residents stroll or jog at all times of the day and evening. People smile, wave, say “hello”. Those who own dogs are generally very responsible people when they go for a walk. Their dogs are leashed and the owners clean up when their dogs defecate. Would that every dog owner showed that level of commitment to keeping our sidewalks clean! Now, walkers & joggers must constantly look down to avoid skidding through a pile of dog excrement. Really? This is what we have devolved into? If you do not consistently clean up after your dog(s), please consider how you would feel if you received a bag of poo on your property from everyone who has received a pile of poo on their property from your dog or from everyone who has had to dodge the pile of poo that you left on the sidewalk because you consider yourself exempt from having to carry or to use a simple bag.

Please think about this before you walk your dog(s) again, “Pets shall not be allowed to soil, litter or destroy common area property. Pursuant to City of Escondido (Municipal Code 4-58) and County of San Diego ordinances, owners shall carry waste clean up materials and dispose of their animal waste properly. Failure to do so may result in a fine/s until compliance is obtained” (Rules & Regulations, 5.4). Further, residents are allowed to have up to 2 (each) of household dogs and / or cats over the age of four months (R & R, 5.2.4)

Remember, many homeowners have security cameras on their property & almost everyone carries a cell phone. Please, do the right thing.
